

Happy (virtual) International day to all our King Athelstan family

Mrs Hosseinian aka 'style icon' in traditional Indonesian dress.

Nicola & Alan Nori proud of their Kurdish/Polish heritage.

Mrs Whooley's English cream tea.

Miss Naik and her beautiful family, all dressed up for an Indian wedding.

Mr. Barson rocking his Danish football shirt.

Tasty Turkish Treats - Missing the fantastic KA 'food market' in the KS1 playground. Hopefully next year...

Bethany & Aletheia Lee eating some scrumptious Chinese food, which they helped to make!

Ava Richardson looking lovely in traditional Indian dress.

Miss Sa proudly waving her Portuguese flag.

Oli & Isabella Wilk in Polish National colours - great drawings guys!

Mrs Ross with her Saltire (Scottish Flag)

Mr Morris munching an English crumpet with a cup of tea

Super stylish Julie Al Masri

Mrs Abdool with her Trinidadian Family

Nadja waving the Slovenian flag - great hat 😊

Miss Gulliford with some tasty pasta her Italian 'Nonna' taught her how to make.

Food Fabulous Food!

Mrs. Umemoto wearing an antique kimono handmade by her Japanese great-grandmother.

Mrs Rizza is proud of her Macedonian roots.

MACEDONIA

Aiden Abdool on a visit to Trinidad to see his extended West Indian family.

Mrs O'Connor enjoying an 'English Afternoon Tea'

Mrs Madronero celebrates her Spanish, German and Mexican heritage...amazing.

Mr. Burbage and his partner, enjoying a British cuppa.

Irish soda bread baked by Mrs Paris...yum!

Kayla Salomoa De Lemos with some amazing home/school learning, explaining that her dad is from Angola and her mum is from Cape Verde.

Traditional Cape Verde cake called 'cuzcuz'

Mr. Channing with a Mexican flag (Year 4's topic is South America.) He also made a delicious fish tortilla cup...move over Jamie Oliver!

Time for tea Dorothy!
Looks delicious!

Lovely Miss Mattarooa in traditional Mauritian dress.

Mrs Ramkissoon's Irish stew...her granny Mary would be proud.

Thank you everyone who contributed to this virtual celebration of our International Day. We are so proud of our multi-cultural community, who are all part of our King Athelstan family 😊

Keep up with your home learning and wellbeing slides 😊