Family Newsletter from Kingston Libraries

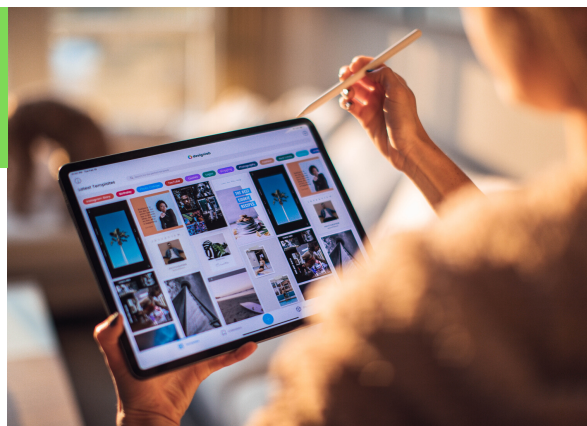

HELLO FROM KINGSTON LIBRARIES

Hi there! We wanted to let you know that we're still here for you even though our buildings are currently closed.

There are lots of ways you can still access library resources and get involved in new activities and events online.

DOWNLOAD EBOOKS, AUDIOBOOKS & MAGAZINES

If you have a library card you can download ebooks and audio books here or download the My Library app to access thousands of free ebooks, audiobooks and magazines.

RESEARCH SAFELY WITH BRITANNICA ONLINE

Search information for homework reliably & safely by using Britannica Online. It's free with your library card. Find Britannica Kids here.

Or see our full range of online resources here, including Britannica Student and Adult.

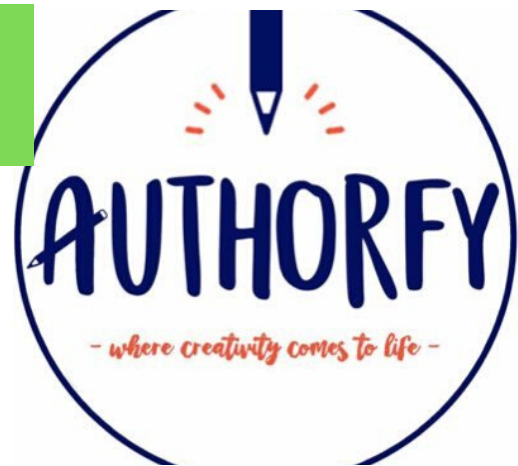

JOIN IN WITH RHYME TIME AND STORYTIME

For KS1 and Early Years we're filming a live Rhyme Time every Wednesday at 11am and a Storytime every Friday at 11am. Watch them on the @Kingstonlibrariesheritage Facebook page or catch up on our new Youtube channel here.

START A BOOK CLUB WITH AUTHORFY

If you haven't discovered Authorfy yet then do take a look at their website.

www.authorfy.com Listen to children's authors talking about their books and download activity sheets to run your own bookclub. It's a perfect way to choose your next book or create a fun English lesson
